THE TRADITION

WRIV began broadcasting on June 20, 1955. Then, as now, WRIV maintains studios and offices in the heart of the Downtown Riverhead business district.

As Eastern Suffolk's longest established radio station, WRIV set the standard for local news coverage and community involvement.

The tradition carved by WRIV is heard every day: Eastern Long Island's most complete local news coverage, agricultural information, and the best music has to offer presented by the area's most well-known personalities.

WRIV 1390AM IS TRADITION!
